Austrian artist Adolfo Schlosser (1939 - 2004) lived in Spain from the mid-Seventies, and it was here that he produced the majority of his body of work. Having been exhibited in some of the leading international art institutions, including the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofia in Madrid, N2 Galeria has organised the first private gallery show of his work in Barcelona, curated by his son Juan and widow Maria Rosa. The exhibition includes works created between 1977 and 1985, with colourful paintings and sculptures on show that represent the relationship between man and nature.
